Frequently Asked Questions

Is there any paperwork to complete on the first day?

Yes, we will ask that you sign your medical declaration form just in case you have suffered any illnesses or injuries since you booked with us.

If I need to cancel, will I lose my course fee?

All bookings are subject to the terms and conditions of Julio Verne Nautica and you automatically accept these conditions when you submit your booking form, even without your handwritten signature. If you have any concerns about your booking then please look at the full terms and conditions as published on our website.

I have special dietary needs, are these catered for?

The boat will be stocked prior to your arrival with basic provisions and your instructor will have a kitty in order to replenish these items during the week. If you have any special dietary requirements you must let us know on your Booking Form prior to your arrival and we will do our best to accommodate you.

I would like to make a complaint; how do I do this?

If you have a complaint then please contact Cristian Vazquez, the Chief Instructor, immediately. If you do not receive a satisfactory response to your complaint or, if it is of such a serious nature that you would prefer to speak to someone outside of the school, please contact the RYA directly at training@rya.org. (Obviously please feel free to contact them if you have had a great experience with us also!)
